

Legacy to Expand Commercial Accounting and Tax Practice

Robert Tiberi, CPA, Managing Partner of Legacy Professionals LLP, is pleased to announce the expansion of the Firm's commercial accounting and tax practice effective September 1, 2008. The employees of Frank Lowry & Co. P.C. will be joining the staff of Legacy. This group includes Frank E. Lowry, CPA, MST and his two employees, Mary E. Murzyn, CPA, and Rosemary Sanchez.

Frank Lowry, CPA, MST has been providing accounting and tax services to small businesses, corporations, partnerships, professionals, individuals, estates, and trusts since 1977. Frank is a former assistant professor of accounting at Calumet College of St. Joseph where he received the "Teacher of the Year" Award. He was also the Comptroller of Calumet College of St. Joseph for a number of years. Frank earned his B.S. degree in Accounting from St. Joseph's College in East Chicago, Indiana (now known as Calumet College of St. Joseph). He also earned a Masters of Science in Taxation from DePaul University, Chicago, in 1981.

Mary Murzyn, CPA has fifteen years of accounting and tax experience in the commercial area. She is a graduate of Purdue University, West Lafayette with a double major in Accounting and Finance.

Rosemary Sanchez is a graduate of Illinois State University. She comes to Legacy with over three years of bookkeeping experience.

Frank, Mary, and Rosemary will all work out of our Munster, Indiana office where they will service Legacy's commercial and individual clients along with a number of their existing clients.

For more information, contact your Legacy Professionals LLP representative.